FIVE MEDALS AT THE TRACE

A Living History Experience

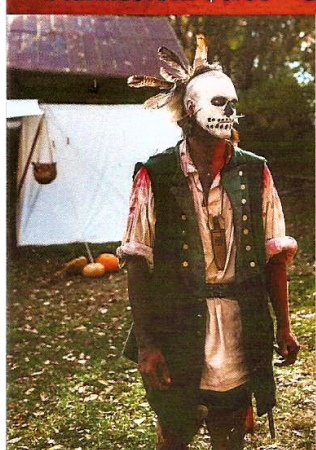

May 6-7, 2023

Stone's Trace | 5111 Lincolnway South | Ligonier, IN

Saturday: 9:00-5:00 - Sunday: 10:00-4:00

Admission: $8.00 - Children under 12 FREE

Demonstrations of 18th and early 19th century lifestyles abound. Blacksmithing, tin-smithing copper-smithing, woodworking, basketry, culinary arts, natural plant dyeing, spinning, weaving, ropemaking, flint knapping and games are just a few of the things that will delight the visitor. See and feel the flash and thunder of military exhibitions with cannon and musket firing. Visit the Native village. Relax and enjoy musical guests Fiddlesix. There's much MORE to experience and always something new to see at Five Medals at The Trace!

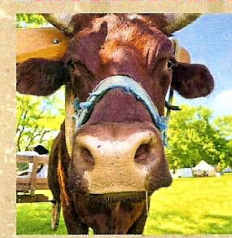

For more information on how to become a participant or how to register for May 5 School Day, contact: fivemedals1812@gmail.com

We never know which characters will be on site at Five Medals at The Trace, but you can be sure there will be many and they will be colorful.

Including Punch & Judy who bring their special brand of humor to entertain us periodically on Saturday.

Also NEW for 2023, the event welcomes Lewis & Clark. This wonderful team of oxen will be busy all weekend greeting our visitors and giving cart rides.

Five Medals at The Trace is the perfect place to shop for gifts for that history buff in your family or your friends list. Tinware, basketry, copperware, treenware, colonial kids games, black smithed items for hearth or camp, hand spun and dyed yarns. There's always something new and interesting to be found among our numerous merchants.
