

A look into the past...

ENTRANCE TO THE CELL BLOCK

The Old Jail was a place where a debt society was served. Both accused and convicted individuals would make their home here until the jail was turned into a museum in 1968. The sheriff's quarters were housed in the front of the building, while the inmates were located in the back section.

GALLERY

MILITARY

SPORTS

19TH CENTURY SCHOOL ROOM

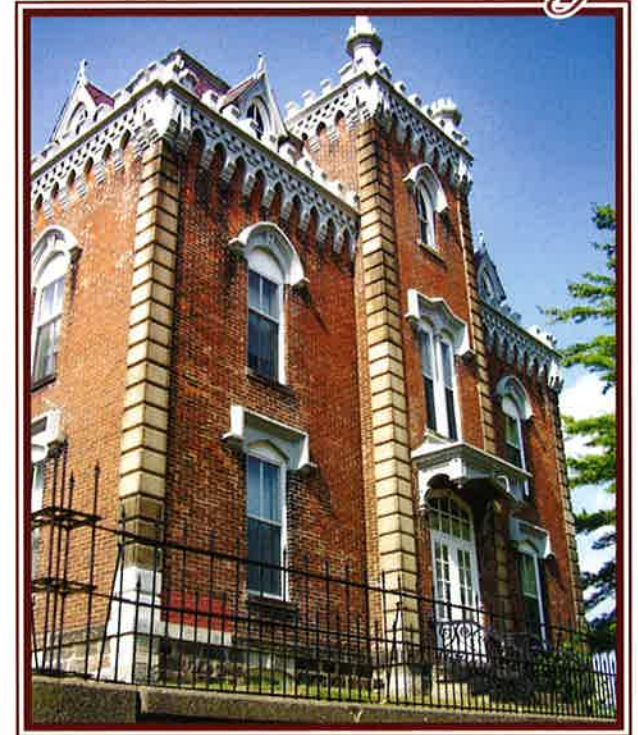

DR. OWEN GANDY'S BUGGY

Hours of Operation

The Old Jail Museum is located at 215 W. Main Street, Albion, IN, one block west of the courthouse. The museum is open every Saturday from Memorial Day weekend through the third week in September from

Walk the corridors...

EXPERIENCE the History.

This 1876 3-story Second Empire building served as both the Noble County Jail and home to the sheriff's family until 1968.

It is now home to

THE OLD JAIL MUSEUM

Listed on the National Register of Historic Places, the museum is owned and operated by the Noble County Historical Society. The museum features displays of Noble County Native American artifacts, Noble County businesses through the years, military history, local sports memorabilia, children's toys, period furniture, farm implements, medical equipment and vintage clothing.